Shady Grove Elementary School PTA is a parent run volunteer organization in a public school in Henrico, Virginia. Parents and teachers volunteer their time and talent in many ways to enhance the education of the children. The Thomas B. Fernald Scholarship honors students who have used their time, talent, or education to be a leader in their community.

Please share with the scholarship application review committee what led you to the opportunity of community service and how the experience has impacted you as well as those you have served. Feel free to expand on leadership and/or discovery of talents through your experiences.

Digital submissions should be within in a Word document if possible. Please submit TWO copies. ONE copy with your name included and ONE copy with your name removed/blocked out. The PTA uses the redacted copy for scoring.

Digital submissions must be received by 5pm on March 15th, 2023. Only digital submissions will be accepted for 2023.
