ESSAY

Shady Grove Elementary School PTA is a parent run volunteer organization in a public school in Henrico, Virginia. Parents and teachers volunteer their time and talent in many ways to enhance the education of the children. The Thomas B. Fernald Scholarship honors students who have used their time, talent or education to be a leader in their community.

Please share with the review committee what led you to the opportunity of community service and how the experience has impacted you as well as those you have served. Feel free to expand on leadership and/or discovery of talents throughout your experiences.
